

Jim Connelly Studio

Open Studio

Studio Time to Paint or Draw with other Artists

Weekly Sessions continue on Wednesdays — 6:30-9:00pm (STUDIO CLOSED April 9)

This is the opportunity to use the studio facility to paint or draw while enjoying the company of other artists. No planned instruction is provided, but the experience of creating in a group always provides a certain level of inspiration, motivation, and mutual learning.

Painting along with others is always stimulating and offers the opportunity to see new things I would have missed by working alone.

—Jim Connelly

This class is for:

All levels of artists who work in any kind of two-dimensional media. Participants are free to use any medium they want. They will have use of studio easels and tables, but will need to bring their own art materials. This is a time artists can experiment on something new. There will be one or more still-life set-ups as artists are free to use any of the studio props, or can bring their own. Artists can bring their own photo references to work from. We will consider hiring models if enough artists commit to sharing the cost.

Costs & info:

$15 due at each session

For a limited time, Jim will offer a free personal critique of any art piece during Open Studio sessions. One art piece per person per session.
